WASHINGTON, FRIDAY, JANUARY 20, 2023

No. 13

House of Representatives

The House met at noon and was called to order by the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. McHENRY).

DESIGNATION OF THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore laid before the House the following communication from the Speaker:

WASHINGTON, DC,
January 20, 2023.

I hereby appoint the Honorable PATRICK T. McHENRY to act as Speaker pro tempore on this day.

KEVIN MCCARTHY,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, the Reverend Margaret Grun Kibben, offered the following prayer:

O Lord, You are our light and our salvation. In the darkness of our days and the bleakness of this season, reveal Yourself that in all we endure and in the challenges we face, we would know that You are with us.

Throughout our country there are regions ravaged by floods, neighborhoods threatened by mudslides, and other areas endangered by extreme drought. Defend those who live there against the advance of destruction. Preserve them that their livelihoods would not be leveled before them.

In the days of trouble, keep us each in the safety of Your protections. Rescue us, too, from the less evident dangers we are sure to encounter: the slander of enemies, the noise of hostility, the inclination toward bitterness, and the penchant for discord.

In Your keeping are we liberated from all that would bring us low and dare to hold us down. Lift up our heads to face with courage the enemies of body and soul. For in You do we find strength. In You are we redeemed.

So may our lives serve to glorify You as we call on Your name this day.

Amen.

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

HONORING THE LIFE OF DR.
STEPHEN BERMAN

HON. DIANA DeGETTE

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, January 20, 2023

Ms. DEGETTE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the life and legacy of Dr. Stephen Berman.

Dr. Berman dedicated his life to improving the health and well-being of people around the world.

After earning his medical degree from Temple University, Steve moved to Colorado to complete his residency at the University of Colorado.

Little did anyone know that this first-year resident, fresh out of medical school, would go on to be one of the university's most influential professors, the Director of the Center for Global Health and a world-renowned leader in the field of public health.

Dr. Berman was one of the most highly regarded members of his profession. He received numerous awards and recognitions for his work. He wrote multiple textbooks and authored hundreds of peer-reviewed research articles over the course of his career.

He was the President of the American Academy of Pediatrics, a special advisor to the World Health Organization, to the U.S. Agency for International Development, and to numerous countries around the world.

But what made Steve truly special is how much he cared for his patients, and how dedicated he was to both serving his community and giving back.

He was determined—with a tireless devotion and every ounce of his being—to make the world a better place, not just for the patients he was treating, or the officials he was advising, but for everyone, everywhere.

Steve made a point to form friendships and professional relationships with elected officials across the political spectrum and at every level of government with a singular goal: to make sure that our health care laws ensure access to treatment for every child, no matter their race, economic status or country of origin.

Like so many in our community, I was heartbroken to hear of Steve's passing this week. Our community lost a true leader and many of us lost a dear friend.

His legacy will continue to live on, not only with the thousands of people he treated throughout his life, but with the untold millions he impacted with his work along the way.

During this difficult time, my heart goes out to his family—his wife Elaine, who was his true partner in all he accomplished, his sons Ben and Jim, and his brothers Jim and Ed. He will be missed.

HONORING THE LIFE OF DR. WILLIE JAMES EPPS

HON. TED LIEU

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, January 20, 2023

Mr. LIEU. Mr. Speaker, I rise today with a heavy heart to honor the life of Dr. Willie James Epps, who passed away on December 27, 2022. A Former Director of the East St. Louis Campus of Southern Illinois University-Edwardsville (SIUE), he was a nationally recognized expert in early childhood education. Born on January 26, 1946, Dr. Epps was raised on a farm in Tchula, Mississippi, the poorest town in the nation's poorest county. His parents, Jonas and Nancy Ellis Epps, though literate and landowners, had never gone to college but insisted their children pursue higher education. Dr. Epps attended racially segregated schools, graduating in 1963 from Tchula Attendance Center, which the town's white leadership denied designation as a high school. Majoring in elementary education, he graduated from Mississippi Valley State University in 1966, having worked part-time as a custodian.

He then moved to Biloxi, Mississippi, where he taught sixth grade at Perkins Elementary School, the city's only primary school for Blacks, comprised of 400 young children and 30 teachers. At Perkins, he met Barbara Bacon, a 1966 graduate of Alcorn State University, who taught fourth and fifth grade. The two married at King Solomon Baptist Church in Natchez, Mississippi, on August 12, 1967.

While earning a master's degree in elementary education at the University of Southern Mississippi, Dr. Epps served as Lexington Elementary School's principal in Lexington, Mississippi, before being promoted to assistant superintendent of the Holmes County School System. In 1970, he joined the faculty of Alcorn State University for a couple of years, before heading off to Kansas State University to pursue a Ph.D., which he was awarded in 1974.

In the mid- to late-1970s, Dr. Epps worked at the U.S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare in Washington, D.C., and as a faculty member at both Mississippi Valley State University and the University of South Alabama. After being recruited to the St. Louis region in 1980, he was associated with SIUE for more than two decades. Dr. Epps initially was director of the National Science Awareness Demonstration Program and later was named director of the University's Head Start Program in St. Clair County. On behalf of the University, he applied for and received about $15 million annually from state, federal, and private grants.

Dr. Epps assumed leadership of the East St. Louis Campus in 1994, retiring in 2001. During his administration he presided over tremendous growth, including the creation of SIUE East St. Louis Charter School, and securing $27 million for a new facility. Dr. Epps served as vice president of the Greater East St. Louis Community Fund, vice chair of the Logan College of Chiropractic Board of Trustees, and a member of the Education Commission of the States' Policy and Priorities Committee. He was a member of West Side Missionary Baptist Church, Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc., and Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge.

He received numerous awards and honors, including Region V Outstanding Head Start Director of the Year from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Outstanding Leader of St. Louis from the Center for Leadership of St. Louis, the Martin Luther King, Jr. Humanitarian Award from SIUE, and an Illinois State Senate Recognition on his retirement.

Prior to struggling with poor health, Dr. Epps founded Southern Research Associates and became an educational consultant to historically Black colleges and universities. He was a dynamic public speaker, traveling throughout the United States to speak at educational conferences and traveling abroad to consult with educational leaders in South Africa and China.

He also visited the Netherlands, Belgium, and France, among others. He was an avid fisherman and hunter. He loved playing the slot machines on the riverboats. Watching sports on television with family and friends was a favorite pastime.

Surviving are his wife of 55 years, Dr. Barbara Bacon Epps, who retired from SIUE in 2001; a son, Hon. Willie J. Epps, Jr., a federal judge who married Mischa Buford Epps; a daughter, Beatryx Epps Washington, General Counsel of O.C. Tanner based in Salt Lake City, Utah, who married Vincent D. Washington; three grandchildren, Gabriela Washington, Cambridge Epps, and Solomon Washington; two sisters, Dr. Fannye Epps Love and Dorothy Epps; and a brother, Sam Epps. His parents, Jonas and Nancy Ellis Epps, and siblings George Ellis and Alice Mae Epps Watson, predeceased him.

On January 18, 1958, Willie O'Ree became the first Black player in NHL history when he stepped on the ice as a winger for the Boston Bruins.

HONORING JULIE JACOBSON

HON. JAMES P. McGOVERN

OF MASSACHUSETTS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, January 20, 2023

Mr. McGOVERN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to celebrate Julie Jacobson's lifetime of devoted service to Central Massachusetts. Thanks to her leadership, the people of Worcester and Auburn, Massachusetts have seen incredible improvements in our communities.

After graduating from Worcester's College of the Holy Cross, Ms. Jacobson began her career in service at the Massachusetts State House working alongside State Representative Thomas P. White. It was with State Representative White where she discovered her passion and talent for public service.

In 1985, Ms. Jacobson began working for the City of Worcester, quickly ascending to the role of Director of Economic Development. During her 15-year tenure, she oversaw more than 200 major development projects, all targeted toward the success of Worcester business and improving the lives of all who live and work here. An incredible leader, Ms. Jacobson coordinated programs across the private sector with help from small business grant programs to drive economic growth in our city.

Mr. Speaker, Ms. Jacobson's impact on the Worcester community cannot be understated. In 2001, Ms. Jacobson began to lead the Worcester Regional Chamber of Commerce's Economic Development and Public Policy program. Quickly, she was chosen to lead the Regional Chamber of Commerce as Interim President and CEO. Under her guidance, she steered the second largest chamber of commerce in New England to roaring success.

Ms. Jacobson then went to serve the Worcester community at large, holding three critical offices: CEO of Worcester's Redevelopment Authority, Chief Development Officer, and Assistant City Manager. She uplifted communities through neighborhood development, urban renewal, and investments in transportation infrastructure.

Ms. Jacobson's most critical work, though, combined her visionary leadership with her passion for local communities. In 2011, she began her 12-year tenure as Town Manager in Auburn, revitalizing the town's government, streamlining services, and improving her community. Under her leadership, she steered Auburn toward improved sustainability and more transparent governance.

Mr. Speaker, Ms. Jacobson's commitment to solid and effective governance should serve as an example for local leaders across the country. Few have dedicated their expertise so consistently to the communities in which they live. On behalf of the United States Congress and all the people of Central Massachusetts whose lives she touched, it is my great privilege to thank and recognize Ms. Jacobson for her service.
